MR. JOHN A. REDMOND, Principal

His office is the scene of smiles and words of encouragement. His sound judgment and understanding of our problems, his untiring efforts and keen interest, his guidance and leadership have inspired our highest respect and confidence. It is with pride and gratitude that we dedicate this book to Mr. Redmond.

A Graduation Prayer

We stand before Thy royal throne this day,
Behind us sweet and bounteous mem'ries say
Our hearts are sad, as we recall those gay,
Sweet thoughts on this our Graduation Day.

Teach us to love and be as we should be,
Teach us to work with faith — ability,
Help us to give our hearts and souls to Thee
So we may live a life of purity.

Life with its cares and joys now do we face,
And when we all have finished this great race,
May we have lived lives pure and full of grace,
To be admitted to Thy Holy Place.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1955

by FRANCES PERRY, GLORIA HOWARD, and PAT JENKINS

To whom it may concern: We, the Class of '55, being in full possession of our memories do hereby give up all claim to our positions which have been passed down to us by our honorable predecessors. We are reluctant to leave some, glad to leave others, but do leave all with the sincere wish that those who follow may carry on with enthusiasm and zest and pass along undimmed the cherished traditions of our school.

Having taken our last diligent (?) steps through four harrowing years of exposure to education, we gladly dedicate what is left of our book-weary selves in this our last will and testament.

1st—We leave our gratitude and appreciation to Mr. Redmond and the faculty who always did their utmost to lessen our ignorance and make our school days more enjoyable.

2nd—To the Class of '56 we pass down our questionable prestige as seniors, our rubber tires and tacks.

3rd—To the Class of '57 we leave our hours and hours of class fun.

4th—To the Class of '58 we bequeath an abundance of courage and determination to carry them to their seniorhood.

5th—Harry Amadea leaves the girls!!!

6th—Howard Arkell and Donald Lincoln bequeath their dispositions to G. Giere and W. Ryan.

7th—Ray Ayers leaves his "hot car" to anyone willing to pay a dollar.

8th—John Bancroft leaves his white bucks to some unsuspecting "frosh."

9th—William Bauman leaves his famous fires.

10th—Paula Bean and Joan Infusino leave their love of a good joke to all those having a poor sense of humor.

11th—Dave Spratley wills his "gavel" to future class leaders.

12th—Kay Martin and Dick Housman leave their royal prestige to the two worthiest Juniors.

13th—Marilyn Scully and Frances Perry bestow their "magic" batons upon Jean Gould and Corina DeMings.

14th—Johnny Bray and Billy Doyle leave their leadership qualities to Eddie and Jimmy.

15th—Pat Jenkins and "Gugs" Stevenson will their shin pads and hockey sticks to next year's co-captains.

16th—Paul Vonckx wills his talented "right arm" to any "would be" tennis champs.

17th—Elaine Kessel and Susie Lindauer leave their paint brushes in Miss Suzedell's closet.

18th—Doreen Dimes and Bob Fickett leave "the long and short of it" to Carl Smith and Franny Hall.

19th—Ann Howes leaves her love for football to Josie Bray.

20th—Bruce Pinel, Warren Cowing, Bernie Brown, Bob Gordan, George Krall, and Kenny Stone will their interest in cars to future "Pioneers."

21st—Arthur Cronin and Noreen Jennings leave their "going steady" ways to Sue Jenner and Eddie Lynch.

22nd—"Farley" leaves his love of a four day week to anyone with enough ability to convince Mr. Higgins of his "ill health."

23rd—John Miller bequeaths his weights and muscles to Bob Philpin.

24th—Dick Taunton wills his shy good looks to Jeff Reid.

25th—Whytie bestows her versatility and good looks upon the most deserving Junior girl.

26th—Carol, Phyllis, Nancy, Joan and Maryann will their pep and spirit to next year's "big five."

27th—Steve Boynton bequeaths his sophistication to anyone who can prove that he has it.

28th—Barbara Houghton wills her culinary skills to those who have trouble boiling water.

29th—Bob Richner wills his suede shoes and belt to Alan Robinson.

30th—Diane Zerner wills her "well dressed" look to Betty Anne Anastos and Carol Shannon.

31st—Una Gabbett leaves her love for the marshal board to Lorraine Bazzinet.

32nd—Gert Hughes wills her comedian antics to Marjorie Russell.

33rd—Anne Magner leaves her bubbling enthusiasm to Janet Ford.

34th—Howie Zimmon and Paul Geddes leave their "hot rock" tricks to anyone with enough daring and personality to try them.

35th—Mitzie and Rip leave their soda jerking ways to prospective drug store employees.

36th—Ed Bogart wills his ingenious quips in class to any equally talented underclassman.

37th—"Ting" leaves her good natured giggle to "Whoop" Orcutt.

38th—Manford Betts bequeaths his "fleet feet" to future Arthur Murrays.

39th—Nick Caparrotta wills his record collection to future disc jockeys.

40th—Barbara Cashman and Barbara Brady leave their ice cream counter to calorie loving undergraduates.

41st—John Schinas bequeaths his latest book on "Ballroom Dancing in Ten Easy Lessons or Nine Hard Ones" to the Frosh.

42nd—Paul Garvin wills his easy going disposition to Frank Ward.

43rd—"Chip" wills his cuteness to Jimmy Watson.

44th—Kathy Linscott wills her "outside interests" to Ginny Crossen.

45th—Dave Muncy, Jack Tibbetts, Dave Wollan, and Dave Sargent will their "dribbles" to next year's replacements.

46th—Jack Halliday and Jack Platner leave their talent on the track team to Tom Chirillo and George Sutherland.

47th—Jack Carne bequeaths his pleasant personality to Phil Gahm.

48th—Joe Seifer and Ronnie DeRosa will their curly hair to Eddie Rose and Dick Lincoln.

49th—Jimmy Marshall and Bobby Beaty leave their many memories to "Guck" and "Ike."

50th—Anne Pickersgill and Pam Mills leave their pleasing personalities to any girls who can smile as sincerely as they do.

51st—Stephanie Lovell leaves her wide grin to anyone who can be as carefree as she.

52nd—Mike Burns leaves his chair in the Senate to anyone who can fit into it.

53rd—Jackie Coash bequeaths his shiny white cast to Joe Achille.

54th—Franny Conditto leaves her domestic talents to Maureen.

55th—Madeline Cormeia dons her skating ability upon Franny.

56th—Paula Costello leaves her line of chatter to anyone fool enough to take it.

57th—John Esau leaves the teachers in peace.

58th—Joan Esau leaves with all her pies and cakes.

59th—Bill Child leaves his captivating key board to Bill Weedon.

60th—Lenny Burgess wills his soda jerking ways to John Finnegan.

61st—Eleanor Beck and Lois Castle leave their love for the Commercial Department with Miss Simpson.

62nd—Bill Blowers leaves his acting ability to Andy MacMillan.

63rd—Lyn Blatchford leaves his tremendous I.Q. to anyone brave enough to take it.

64th—Ed Lieberman wills his desire to succeed to Donald Pitcher.

65th—David Blowers leaves his capability to be nice to anyone who best deserves it.

66th—Susan Clark wills her quiet ways to Mary Dean.

67th—Donald Scothorne leaves his sideburns to anyone who looks good in them.

68th—Natalie Gratta leaves her terrific treasurer's talent to anyone who's good enough to get elected.

69th—Carol Hone bequeaths her sylph-like figure to Carol McAdams.

70th—Bob Hone leaves his love of ice hockey to Bill Remes.

71st—Carol Harnden leaves bus No. 8 to anyone who likes to get up at 6:30 A.M.

THE HARBORMEN'S VOYAGE THROUGH '54

by JOAN HENNINGSSEN

With Coach Pres Barry and assistant coach, Tom Brennan at the bow, making sure their boys were in top shape for the first game of the season, the "Harbormen" were guided through North Quincy with a 13-13 tie. They stayed on course and "broke through" Canton, Abington, and Braintree 12-0, 26-0 and 20-6 respectively.

Upon meeting Wellesley, also undefeated, Hingham encountered its first defeat, 19-13. The following Saturday found the "Harbormen" back on course again with a 27-0 victory over Plymouth.

Whitmon and Barnstable came in view but our ship moved on and kept its course with two ties: 6-6 and 13-13.

Hingham was at its peak Turkey Day facing Rockland. Although the weather man was against us, spirit was with us and the "Harbormen" walked off the field with a 14-0 victory.

Our port was finally reached and although co-captains Johnny Bray and "Tiger" Doyle assisted by Dave Muncy, Bruce Gillespie, Dave Spratley, Jack Tibbetts, Bob Richner, Pete Merlino, John Bancroft, Mike Burns, Steve Boynton, John Fuda, John Schinas, Manford Betts, Jimmy Marshall, and William Bauman won't be on board again, the "Harbormen" will be back on course in the fall of '55.

We say, well done, fellows, and congratulations, Coach Barry!!

CLASS SONG - 1955

Bill Child
Bob Fickett

We are the seniors, class of fifty five, Now that we have passed the first great test; And toward the others we will always strive
Un-til we've conquer'd all the rest

Our victories have always led the way,
On the field and in the gym we've tried;
And to heed the coaches--every word they say--
We will always follow and obey.

3.

Our principal and all the faculty
Have led us through the best of years;
When we want them most, they always try to see
How to help us overcome our fears.

Now is the time for us to say good-bye,
Many are the friends that we have made;
Ideals we have learned in this our Hingham High,
These fond mem-or-ies will never fade.
